Topics include measurement of product costs, cost drivers and cost behavior, activity-based management, strategic cost management, management control and performance evaluation, differential cost analysis, financial modeling for short-term decision making, capital budgeting decisions, profit planning and budgeting, incentive issues, and cost allocation to responsibility centers.

VI. Instructional Methods

- Analysis and Problem-Solving
- Case Research
- Active Learning

Each chapter will be discussed and sample problems will be worked in class. Reading the material before you come to class is imperative for you to follow the class discussion and ask questions.

VII. Methods of Evaluating Outcomes

Evaluation Tools

Exams (3@ 100 points each)	300 points
Case analysis project (3@ 30 points each)	90 points
Homework (on-line)	60 points
Total	450 points

The table below presents the possible points used to derive grades.

Points Earned	Percent	Grade
405-450	90-100	A
360-404	80-89	B
315-359	70-79	C
Below 315	Below 70	F

Exams (300 total points):

There will be three tests in this class. Students are expected to take exams in class as scheduled. If a student has a known conflict for a future exam, such as out-of-town work conflicts, the student should arrange in advance to take the scheduled exam early. If a student must miss an exam due to illness, the student should email the instructor on or before the exam date and make arrangements with the instructor upon returning to class to make up the missed exam on a timely basis. Students should only miss an exam for legitimate reasons, such as illness. The instructor reserves the right to assess whether a student's reason for missing is legitimate. Lack of preparation is not a legitimate reason for missing an exam. No more than one exam can be missed during the semester; any additional missed exams will receive a grade of zero.

NOTE: You will need a pencil and simple calculator for each exam.

Case Analysis Project (90 total points):

There will be three case analysis projects in this class. Late projects will not be accepted. Case analysis projects will be posted on CourseDen. Case projects should be submitted to the appropriate dropbox on CourseDen by 11:59 PM on the date due.

On-line Homework (50 total points):

There will be one homework assignment over each of the eight chapters. You will need to register at McGraw Hill Connect Accounting in order to be able to do the On-line Homework. The instructions for registering at Connect will be provided to you separately. The homework assignments have deadlines. It is your responsibility to be aware of these deadlines and to adhere to them. The deadlines will be strictly enforced, so do not ask the instructor to reset any homework for you if you miss a deadline.

Learning Domains

- Cognitive: Knowledge, comprehension, application, analysis, synthesis, and, evaluation.
- Affective: Receiving, responding, valuing, organization, and characterization.

VIII. Other Miscellaneous, but Important InformationClassroom Behavior

Cell phones must be turned off and text messaging is not allowed during class. If you do not understand something I say, please ask me but not your classmate. Talking while I'm speaking is unacceptable no matter the circumstance.

Class Attendance

You are expected to attend all class meetings. Attendance will be taken each class period. Arriving to class late and/or leaving class early without preapproving it with the instructor is disruptive to the class. A student who arrives late and/or leaves early is considered to be absent for that day

You are responsible for knowledge of any administrative announcements (test information, schedule changes, etc.) that are made at any time during scheduled class periods regardless of whether you attend. It is recommended that you make a reciprocal agreement with a classmate to share missed notes and other class information.

my.westga.edu

The policy of the University of West Georgia is that each student is responsible for checking his/her my.westga.edu e-mail account on a regular basis. Any announcements related to this class will be sent to your my.westga.edu account.

American Disabilities Act

It is the policy of UWG to accommodate students with disabilities, pursuant to federal and state laws, and UWG's commitment to equal educational opportunities. Please contact Disability Services for more information (272 Parker Hall; (678) 839-6428).
