Optional Text: Fundamentals of Human Resource Management, Lussier & Hendon, 2017.

Course Description: This course is designed to introduce you to the fundamental issues associated with Human Resource Management (HRM). During this course we will examine the major topics related to HRM and attempt to better understand Human Resource's important role within the organization. Through lectures and exercises, you will cultivate an appreciation of the many challenges that Human Resource Managers face on a daily basis and of the tools that can be used to function effectively in HRM positions.

Class Format: All lectures in this course are delivered in an online format and are available on CourseDen. You will be required to take four mandatory exams on the UWG Carrollton campus.

Credit Hour Policy (3 credit hours): For approximately fifteen weeks, students in this class will generally spend 150 minutes with direct faculty instruction (either face-to-face or online) and work about 360 minutes outside of the classroom each week. This out-of-class work may include, but is not limited to, readings, assignments, projects, group work, research, and test preparation.

Learning Objectives:

1. Students will demonstrate an understanding of the major functions of Human Resource Management including HR Planning, Legislative Compliance, Staffing, HR Development, Compensation, Health & Safety, and Employee/Labor Relations. (BBA 4, MGT 1)
2. Students will demonstrate the ability to use several on-line resources available to HR practitioners. (BBA 3, MGT 1)

Attendance: Attendance is required at the mandatory orientation session on January 9th. If you cannot attend this session, you must notify me before 9:30 am on January 9th or you may be dropped from the class. Additionally, attendance is required for four exams. Consideration for rescheduling an exam will be given only if you notify the instructor at the earliest possible time and if you can present appropriate documentation regarding your absence.

Tentative Exam Schedule: Four exams will be given this semester to allow you the opportunity to demonstrate your understanding of Human Resource Management. Questions will be taken from class lectures. The specific test format will be announced prior to each exam. Generally, make-up exams will not be given. Consideration for rescheduling an exam will be given only if you notify the instructor at the earliest possible time and if you can present appropriate documentation regarding your absence. The tentative exam schedule is as follows:

Exam I	Jan 30 th (Tue)	9:30 am	Miller Hall 1308

Exam III	Mar 29 th (Thur)	9:30 am	Miller Hall 1308
Exam IV	Apr 26 th (Thur)	9:30 am	Miller Hall 1308

Quizzes: At the end of each HR topic presented online, there is a short quiz (typically 4 – 8 multiple choice questions). These are relatively broad questions and should be rather easy to answer after reviewing the videos. The quizzes will count five percent in your final grade calculation.

HRM Activities: You will complete three different activities that are designed to help you better understand the HR function. In the first activity you will be working on the Department of Labor website, in the second activity you will be working on the O*Net System, and in the third activity you will be examining useful HR-related blogs. Specific details on each activity will be available on Course Den. The assignments will be collected when you come to campus to take your first three exams.

Please understand that each of these activities count for a grade and are individual efforts. If there is evidence of individuals working together, you will be subject to the penalties for “Breach of Academic Integrity” outlined later in this syllabus.

HRM Activities are due at the beginning of class on exam days. If the activity is not submitted at the beginning of class, there will be a 20 point deduction for each 24 hours the assignment is late. HRM Activities will not be accepted via e-mail.
