OVERVIEW

Prerequisite: MGNT 3600 or equivalent

Course Description and Objectives

This is a face-to-face class that meets on campus. The course is intended to help students gain a better understanding of successful international management practices. The course's primary objective is to explore issues surrounding international management and global competitiveness. We will consider some important issues that should be accounted for in international management such as the nature of international competition, cultural differences across countries, and the influences of financial, environmental, socio-cultural, political, and economic forces on the practices of multinational enterprises.

Learning Objectives

1. Have a broad based knowledge of the economic, business, and trade environment in different countries / areas of the world and how they are linked. (BBA 4)
2. Be able to gather and analyze trade and business information about specific countries from various government and private sources, and to communicate this information effectively in oral presentations and in writing. (BBA 1)
3. Have some knowledge about how basic business concepts and theories in all the different functional areas of business can be interpreted and applied in terms of international business situations. (BBA 4, BBA 6)
4. Be able to analyze international business situations and to recognize how diversity, globalization, and multicultural considerations affect organizational environments and strategic plans. (BBA 5)

Expectations and Responsibilities of Students

Professional Value and Integrity

Students are expected to:

- Know and understand the UWG Honor Code
- Treat others with respect and fairness with an appreciation for cultural diversity
- Adopt a professional attitude in speech and actions

Classroom Conduct

It is expected, but not mandated, that you regularly attend class. All material discussed in class and contained in the text/handouts/videos is subject to inclusion on quizzes/tests. Attendance is required for exams, quizzes, team or individual presentations, case studies, and guest speakers. When attending class, students are expected to:

- Arrive on time (I reserve the right to reduce your grade for habitual tardiness)
- Be prepared
- Ask questions and make comments on the material
- Be considerate of others
- Refrain from sleeping or chattering excessively
- Silence cell phones
- Complete assignments on time

Other Course Policies

- Indicate your section and full name on all assignments and presentations, even those submitted through email/CourseDen.
- Email has become a popular communication mode, yet many emails are far too informal for business communication (i.e., unpunctuated, sloppily written, and using greetings such as 'Hey'). Because of this, all email correspondence must be of professional quality (see document posted in the START HERE folder of CourseDen).
- It is the student's responsibility to access all content posted on CourseDen and emailed to the student.
- Unforeseen changes in the syllabus and assignments will be announced in email.
- It is the student's responsibility to regularly check their email.
- Missing the first graded assignments is grounds for being dropped from the course.

COURSE SCHEDULE

The following schedule is subject to revisions. Assignments, reference material, and articles will be posted on CourseDen. Please note that you (the student) are at the center of the learning process. Consequently, achieving positive learning outcomes are fully possible only when you are actively involved in and commit sufficient personal resources to the learning process.

Assignment	Detail
Homework	There will be seven homework assignments. Those that require a submission are due by class start time on the stated due date . Late submissions will not be accepted. Homework must be typed and must display the student's name at the top of the document. No handwritten submissions will receive credit. For assignment detail and grade weights, see the Assignments document on CourseDen.
Debate Project	I will separate the class into teams of about 4-5 persons. Two teams will be assigned the same current international topic but opposite points of view. Each team will present their points of view and then debate the topic. Deliverable: Executive summary (due 3/9). Debates (due 4/20-5/2) with PowerPoint /Prezi slides and a list of 5 questions for your rival team. Presentation and questions are due to me at class start time electronically (email) and in hard copy. A handout detailing the specific information to cover will be provided in class. A note about teams: Each team member will perform a short evaluation of the other team members. These peer evaluations should reflect the contributions of each team member. Based on peer evaluations, appropriate adjustments to individual grades will be made where necessary. In some cases, these adjustments can be severe. BEWARE: If you receive an average grade of F from your peers, you automatically fail the course. I recommend you try to keep your team members happy by contributing your share to the group project.
Exams	Exams will normally contain multiple choice, short essay questions and the world map. Exams draw on everything we cover in the course, including presentations, slides, textbook, class discussions, videos, and guest speakers. Additionally, students are responsible for content in the book and posted presentations regardless of whether the information is covered in class. Test Make-Up Policy: There will be no make-up for exams except for the reasons listed below. Unexcused absences from an exam will result in a zero score. An excused exam absence is defined by one of the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. University-sanctioned activity. Written, verifiable notification of the activity must be provided and validated by the instructor at least 72 hours prior to the scheduled exam. 2. Verified medical absence. A written and verifiable note must be presented to me no more than 72 hours after the exam. The note must say that you were physically unable to take the exam at the scheduled time due to the nature of your illness. 3. Other hardship cases provided that you have obtained the required approval of the university.
Extra Credit	I generally avoid extra credit but do offer one exception. I will reward anyone for identifying errors in the class documents (the ones I have created) at the rate of 2 pts per error on the next exam (max 6 pts per exam) for the first student to point out the error. If you notice an error of spelling, grammar, punctuation, or date, please bring it to my attention. However, please note the "rule of three" below as I will be scrutinizing your documents with equal rigor.
Mandatory attendance days	There are several "mandatory attendance days" noted on the course calendar. Absence from class on these days results in a 2 point deduction from the final grade for each occurrence.

The instructor reserves the right to modify the grade scale, graded items, and content of class as necessary.

QUALITY OF SUBMISSIONS

Success in business generally requires professionalism. Therefore, any assignment submitted for a grade must clearly display the student's name at the top of the page. Also, submissions should be accurate in terms of format, grammar, punctuation, and spelling. I use the "rule of three" when grading all assignments: if I find three or more errors, the assignment will receive a 0 grade and the student will not have the opportunity to correct and resubmit the assignment. Please carefully proofread all content prior to submitting it to me. Also, be aware of the following:

- Assignments should be professionally formatted. Sloppy documents, regardless of their content, will receive a grade of 0.
- Assignments should be typed. Use 12 point Times New Roman font, 1-inch margins, and single space.
- Submit all assignments in Dropbox on CourseDen unless otherwise noted.
- Include your name on all submitted assignment, even those turned in electronically.
- Staple all multi-page assignments that are submitted in hard copy (i.e. PowerPoint slides for debate project).
- Late assignments will not receive credit unless appealed and approved by me in advance. Do not expect positive appeals. Timeliness is one of the most important aspects of business.

COMMUNICATION EXPECTATION

The Management Department believes in work-life balance for both faculty and students. Faculty will typically respond to student emails within 24 hours. Students should not expect a response during non-business hours, which includes nights, weekends, holidays, and school breaks.

HONOR CODE and DISABILITIES

The Honor Code

At the University of West Georgia, we believe that academic and personal integrity are based upon honesty, trust, fairness, respect and responsibility.

Students at West Georgia assume responsibility for upholding the honor code. West Georgia students pledge to refrain from engaging in acts that do not maintain academic and personal integrity. These include, but are not limited to, plagiarism, cheating, fabrication, aid of academic dishonesty, lying, bribery or threats, and stealing.

The University of West Georgia maintains a confidential Academic Dishonesty Tracking System. This database collects and reports patterns of repeated student violations across all the Colleges, the Ingram Library, and the School of Nursing. Each incidence of academic dishonesty is subject to review and consideration by the instructor, and is subject to a range of academic penalties including, but not limited to, failing the assignment and/or failing the course. Student conduct sanctions range from verbal warning to suspension or expulsion depending on the magnitude of the offense and/or number of offenses. The incident becomes part of the student's conduct record at UWG.

Additionally, the student is responsible for safeguarding his/her computer account. The student's account and network connection are for his/her individual use. A computer account is to be used only by the person to whom it has been issued. The student is responsible for all actions originating through his/her account or network connection. Students must not impersonate others or misrepresent or conceal their identities in electronic messages and actions. For more information on the University of West Georgia Honor Code, please see the Student Handbook.

Definitions:

- Plagiarism - "representing the words or ideas of another as one's own. Direct quotations must be indicated and ideas of another must be appropriately acknowledged"
- Cheating - "using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information or study aids"
- Fabrication - "falsification or unauthorized invention of any information or citation"

Penalties for Breach of Academic Integrity

Each incidence of academic dishonesty is subject to review and consideration by the instructor, and is subject to a range of penalties including but not limited to failing the assignment, failing the course, and referral to Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

NOTE: Violations of the academic honesty policy may result in expulsion from the University.

Further details regarding Student Conduct can be found in Appendix A of the UWG Connection and Student Handbook.

Americans with Disabilities Act

If you are a student who is disabled as defined under the Americans with Disabilities Act and requires assistance or support services, please seek assistance through the Center for Disability Services. A CDS Counselor will coordinate those services. See <http://www.westga.edu/~dserve/>.

Students with disabilities needing academic accommodation should:

1. Register with and provide documentation to the Coordinators of Disability Services in the Student Development Center
2. Bring a letter to the instructor indicating the need for accommodation and what type. This should be done during the first week of class.

This syllabus and other class materials are available in alternative format upon request. Further details regarding student disabilities can be found in the Student Handbook.
