

CHERYL L. NYE

Instructor
Department of Geosciences
University of West Georgia

EDUCATION

- 2018 Ph.D. Expected graduation; History, GEORGIA STATE UNIVERSITY
Peace Signs, Raised Fists and Che: The T-shirt as Symbol, Sign and Agent in 20th Century United States History
- 2013 M.A. Geography, GEORGIA STATE UNIVERSITY
Transformation and Care in a City of Refuge. Advisor: Dr. Katherine Hankins
- 2010 B.A. Summa Cum Laude, Geography, UNIVERSITY OF WEST GEORGIA
UNIVERSITY OF WEST GEORGIA HONORS COLLEGE

PROFESSIONAL CREDENTIALS

- 2017 – present Instructor, Department of Geosciences, University of West Georgia
- 2014 - 2016 Adjunct Instructor, Department of Geosciences, University of West Georgia
- 2013 - 2016 Teaching Assistant, History, Georgia State University
United States History; World History; The American South
- 2010 - 2013 Lab Instructor, Geosciences, Georgia State University
Weather and Climate; Landforms

SCHOLARSHIP AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Presentations and Publications

- 2017 History of Consumer culture: Objects, Desire and Sociability Conference
Tokyo, Japan
“I’m with the Band: Constructing and Deconstructing Culture and Subculture”
- 2014 World History Association Annual Conference; San Jose, Costa Rica “Chintz, Calico, Chambric, Palampores and Pintado: Weaving Transformation and Revolution through the Consumption of Comfort”
- 2014 Atlanta Studies Symposium; Atlanta, GA
“Day-to-Day Dedication: Urban Social Movements of Faith”
- 2013 Thesis: “Transformation and Care in a City of Refuge”
Institutional Review Board Approved
- 2013 Critical Geography, Spatial Theory & Everyday Life Symposium, Georgia
State University, Atlanta, GA
“Proximity Analysis of Refugee Service Organizations in Clarkston, Georgia”

- 2012 2nd Annual Geographies of Education Conference; Loughborough, UK.
"Reciprocal Models of Transformation in a City of Refuge"
- 2012 American Association of Geographers Annual Conference; New York, NY
Session: "Nuanced Human Landscapes in the American South"
"Civility and Transformation in a City of Refuge"
- 2011 American Association of Geographers Annual Conference: Seattle, WA
"Making Stone Soup in a Hollowed Out City"
- 2010 The University System of Georgia Middle East Student Symposium; GA
"The Many Textured Tapestry of Identity in Beirut"

ACADEMIC AWARDS

- 2013 Graduate Teaching Assistant of the Year, Sigma Gamma Epsilon Geosciences
Honor Society
- 2012 Outstanding Graduate Student, National Council for Geographic Education
- 2010 John Chambers Award, Top Senior in Geosciences
- 2010 Thomas Herndon Award/Scholarship, Top Geography Major
- 2009 Rodney Morrison Award/Scholarship, Top Junior in Geosciences

SERVICE/OFFICES HELD

- 2014-2015 Treasurer, Association of Historians, Georgia State University
- 2011-2012 President, Gamma Theta Upsilon Honor Society, Georgia State University
- 2010-2011 Graduate Student Representative,
Southeastern Division of Geographers Executive Committee
- 2010-2012 Vice-President, Gamma Theta Upsilon, Georgia State University
- 2009-2010 Officer, Gamma Theta Upsilon, University of West Georgia

RESEARCH PROFICIENCIES

Geographic Information Systems (GIS)
German (conversational, reading), French (reading), Russian (reading)
Collaborative Institutional Training Initiative (CITI) Program

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

American Association of Geographers
Southeast Association of American Geographers
American Historical Association
World History Association